

When Everything Falls Apart: Guidance from Seasoned Training Directors

Shannon Fussell, Ph.D.; Scott Cardin, Ph.D. (Co-Chairs/Discussants)
Kenneth Adams, Ph.D.; Steve McCutcheon, Ph.D.; Keith Shaw, Ph.D.; Wayne Siegel, Ph.D.;
Cecilia Sun, Ph.D.; & Matt Zimmerman, Psy.D. (Panelists: The Seasoned Training Directors)
Presented at the 2016 APPIC Membership Conference
New Orleans, Louisiana

Training Director Highlighted Resource List

APPIC

www.appic.org

Beyond policy and procedure information, there is a well-curated collection of practical information and help for training directors at all levels, including:

- * The most comprehensive website for training director resources:
<http://appic.org/Training-Resources/For-Training-Directors>
- * Professional listserv
- * Informal Problem Consultation service
- * Biennial Membership Conference

APA Education Directorate

www.apa.org/ed

Access to APA Education and Training Resources and Guidelines, guidance regarding psychology internship and postdoctoral training issues, and free webcasts.

APA Office of Program Consultation and Accreditation

www.apa.org/ed/accreditation/index.aspx

Access to accreditation guidelines, site visitor information, and individual consultation services via telephone.

Canadian Psychological Association - Education and Training

www.cpa.ca/education

Access to CPA Accreditation Manual, self-study and site visit information, "Accreditation Update" newsletter, and training-related presentations.

The Canadian Council of Professional Psychology Programs

www.ccppp.ca/

Access to a professional listserv, mentoring program, internship selection guidance, and a wealth of other resources.

Divisions of APA

www.apa.org/about/division/

APA Divisions can provide an excellent resource for training directors regarding particular populations, the specialties, and work foci.

Print Media

Training and Education in Professional Psychology – APA/APPIC quarterly journal

The Oxford Handbook of Training and Education in Professional Psychology – W. B. Johnson & N. Kaslow, Eds.

A Theory of Justice – John Rawls

Site-Specific Resources

Academic Health Centers:

Association of Psychologists in Academic Health Centers: www.div12.org/section8/

Health Psychology Sites:

Council of Clinical Health Psychology Training Programs (CCHPTP): www.cchptp.org/

University Counseling Centers:

Association of Counseling Center Training Agencies (ACCTA): www.accta.net

Resources provided by ACCTA include a professional listserv, web resources for members, and an annual conference.

International Association of Counseling Services, Inc. (IACS): www.iacsinc.org

Veterans Affairs:

VA Psychology Training Council: www.mentalhealth.va.gov/vaptc.asp

Resources include a training-specific SharePoint and a professional listserv.

Association of VA Psychologist Leaders: www.avapl.org

Office of Academic Affiliations (OAA): www.va.gov/oaa/

Access to VA-specific policy, procedure, and general training guidance, as well as individual consultation.

Other Local Resources to Consider

Agency's legal counsel

Human Resources

Site-specific training and education resources (e.g., Center for Research on Learning and Teaching, University of Michigan)

Human Connection

Dr. Jacqueline Wall, Director, APA Office of Program Consultation and Accreditation

Mentors met through organized mentoring programs

Our Esteemed Panelists

Your Training Director network from the APPIC conference

Further Correspondence

Shannon Fussell, Ph.D.: Shannon.Fussell@va.gov

Scott Cardin, Ph.D.: Scott.Cardin@va.gov